WHAT DOES SECURIAN FINANCIAL DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information.
Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
• Social Security number, income, and employment information
• Account balances, transaction history and credit history
• Medical information and risk tolerance
• Assets and investment experience

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reason Securian Financial chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

If you live in California, North Dakota or Vermont, we are required to obtain your affirmative consent for a non-affiliate to market to you.

Information we collect
To provide you with products or services, or pay your claims, we collect information that is not publicly available. This may include information such as your name, address, assets, income, net worth, beneficiary designations and other information from your application. We also collect information about your transactions with us, our family of companies or with others, such as insurance policy information, premiums, payment history, and investment purchases. We may also collect information such as claims history or credit scores from consumer reporting agencies.

How we share information
We may share the information we collect as described in this notice with others.
Disclosures are only made if authorized by you or as permitted or required by law. For example, we may disclose information to companies that perform services for us, such as preparing or mailing account statements, processing customer transactions or programming software; to companies to assist us in marketing our own products or services; or to affiliates for the purpose of servicing or administering your account. We may also disclose contact information to financial institutions (such as insurance companies, securities brokers or dealers and banks) with whom we have joint marketing agreements. Additionally, your financial representative and other Securian Financial employees who assist your representative have access to the information they need to provide services to you.

We may share the information described here with government agencies or authorized third parties as required by law. For example, we may be required to share such information in response to subpoenas or to comply with certain laws.
Before we disclose customer information to service providers, companies with whom we have joint marketing agreements, or companies assisting us in marketing our own products or services, we require them to agree to keep this information confidential and to use it only as authorized by us. They are not permitted to release, use or transfer any customer information to any other person without our consent.

How we protect your privacy
We follow these policies and practices to protect the personal information we have about you:
1. We do not sell personal information about you to anyone.
2. We do not share medical information with any affiliates or third parties for any reason unless you have given your consent or unless required or permitted by law.
3. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards designed to protect your personal information. We restrict access to personal information about you to those employees we believe need access to provide products and services to you. Employees who deal with personal information are trained to adhere to confidentiality standards. Any employee who violates these standards is subject to discipline.

Notice to plan sponsors/group policyholders
This privacy notice describes our practices for safeguarding personal information about the individuals who purchase our financial products and services primarily for personal, family or household purposes. If you are a plan sponsor or group policyholder, this privacy notice describes our practices for collecting, disclosing and safeguarding personal information about group plan participants.

Former customers
Information about our former customers is kept for the period of time required by our Records Retention Policies. During this time, the information is not disclosed except as required or permitted by law.
The information is destroyed in a secure manner when we are no longer required to maintain it.
Vermont: Under Vermont law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of our corporate family, unless the law allows. For example, we may share information with your consent, to service your accounts or under joint marketing agreements with other financial institutions. We will not share information about your creditworthiness within our corporate family except with your consent, but we may share information about our transactions or experiences with you within our corporate family without your consent.

California: Under California law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of Securian unless the law allows. For example, we may share information with your consent or to service your account(s). We will limit sharing among our affiliates to the extent required by California law.

For Insurance Customers in AZ, CA, CT, GA, IL, ME, MA, MN, MT, NV, NJ, NC, OH, OR and VA only. The term "Information" in this part means customer information obtained in an insurance transaction. We may give your Information to state insurance officials, law enforcement, group policy holders about claims experience or auditors as the law allows or requires. We may give your Information to insurance support companies that may keep it or give it to others. We may share medical Information so we can learn if you qualify for coverage, process claims or prevent fraud, or if you say we can. You can request to review your personal data in our files by writing to us at the address shown on your statement. If you believe your personal data is incorrect, you may contact us at the same address.

For MA Insurance Customers only. You may ask, in writing, for the specific reasons for an adverse underwriting decision. An adverse underwriting decision is where we decline your application for insurance, offer to insure you at a higher than standard rate or terminate your coverage.

Securian Financial is the marketing name for Securian Financial Group, Inc and its affiliates.
